IRS Tax Help In Sight

IRSTaxRepair.com is offering a free tax analysis and consultation as a pilot program to assist Los Angeles area taxpayers with the looming April 15, 2013 tax deadline.

(Newswire.net -- April 10, 2013) Los Angeles, California --The goal is simply to assist as many people as possible in directly dealing with any IRS tax issue either past or present; our service will provide tax debt assistance through our online library of common IRS tax problems as well as the most practical solutions to those problems. If taxpayers are unable to resolve the tax issue on their own, we will connect people directly with our trusted tax partners such as CPAs, tax attorneys, enrolled agents and former IRS agents who will offer delinquent taxpayers or those who have other complicated issues a free professional tax analysis and consultation.

IRSTaxRepair.com remains confident that our web based service which provides taxpayers up to date resources arming people and businesses alike with the necessary information to negotiate with the IRS on their own, will be sufficient to help get the average taxpayer back on track.....If not we provide a toll free number to connect with a tax professional in real-time.

Our free analysis and consultation offering to Los Angeles taxpayers has our professional tax partners prepared to help with issues such as IRS Wage Garnishments, Bank Levy's, Offer in Compromise, Penalty Abatement, Tax Debt Settlement and much more. If the pilot program is a success plans are in the works for offering free analysis and consultation on a national basis immediately.
